*To a Special Person . . .
Donald Ferguson*

Thank You For a Job Well Done!

Donald Ferguson, retiring after 26 years of service to his school, his profession, and his community, is surely one of the most familiar faces in Springfield. Honored last year by colleagues and former students for his quarter-century of contribution to education (right), Mr. Ferguson this year was given the Community Service award by the Springfield Education Association.

One of Mr. Ferguson's many contributions was the assistance he gave to local radio "hams" in getting started. He is shown here with the High School Radio Club.

1966 . . .
Year of the Non-Conference

Coach Stephens has reason to be jubilant, as the Rams finished with their best season in more than a decade — 6 wins and 2 losses.

Springfield had only 77 points scored against it, while the offense piled up an impressive 185 point total during the eight-game season.

The Girl's Ensemble featured selections from "Gypsy."

The major portion of the program consisted of performances by the band, chorus, and choir.

The Secret Lovers: Winston and Julia

BIG BROTHER

1984

Big Brother is all power. The world of Oceania is Utopia. This year's All-School Play, "1984," was critically acclaimed the first dramatic success for this school in years. George Orwell's classic was brought to life by leads Jim Simmonds, Julie Collins, and Mark Holcomb.

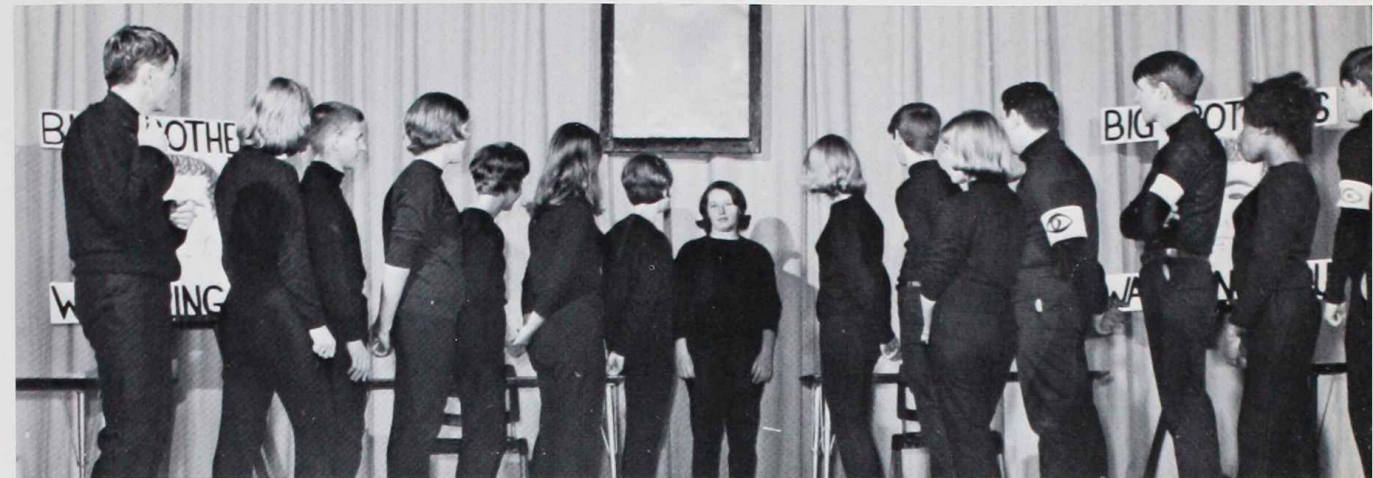

The supporting cast included: Sharon Davis as the landlady, Les Packham, Asa Reid, Dave Lydick, Gayle Wagner, and Cindi Slack

Separated Lovers Meet Again

Parsons (Gayle Wagner) is brought to the Ministry of Love with Winston (Jim Simmonds) where one is taught to "Love Big Brother."

"I didn't mean to break it! Really, I didn't."

A good slap now and then, the play centered around the secret love affair between Winston and Julia, who lived under the dictatorship of Big Brother. The lovers were caught and sent to the Ministry of Love, where they were taught to "Think differently."

Juniors received and sophomores ordered their class rings from Mr. Zimmerman who represented Balfour Jewelers.

Junior Vice-president, Marti Bayha accepted the trophy for the winning float at half-time of the Homecoming game.

Bob Wolf, President, receives the award in behalf of the juniors who also won the coveted spirit trophy.

When Spirit 'Pays Off' . . .

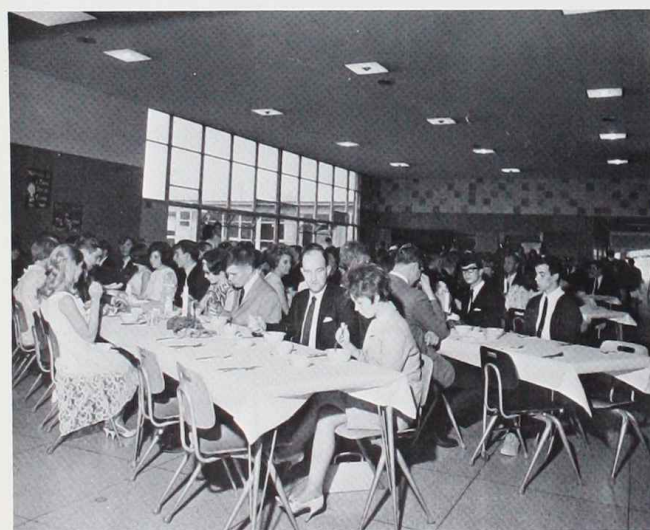

Bob Wolf, President of the Junior Class was the MC of the Banquet. Others seated at the head table were Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Miss Savage, who was the guest speaker . . .

Junior Senior Banquet

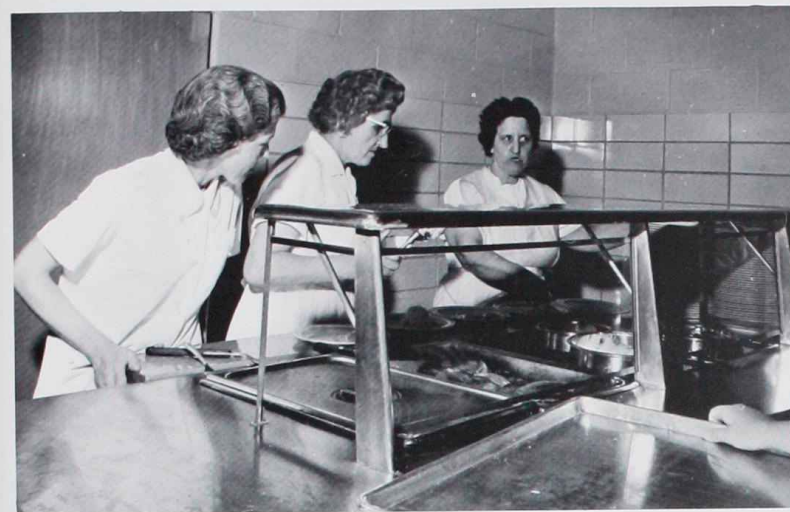

May 16, 1967

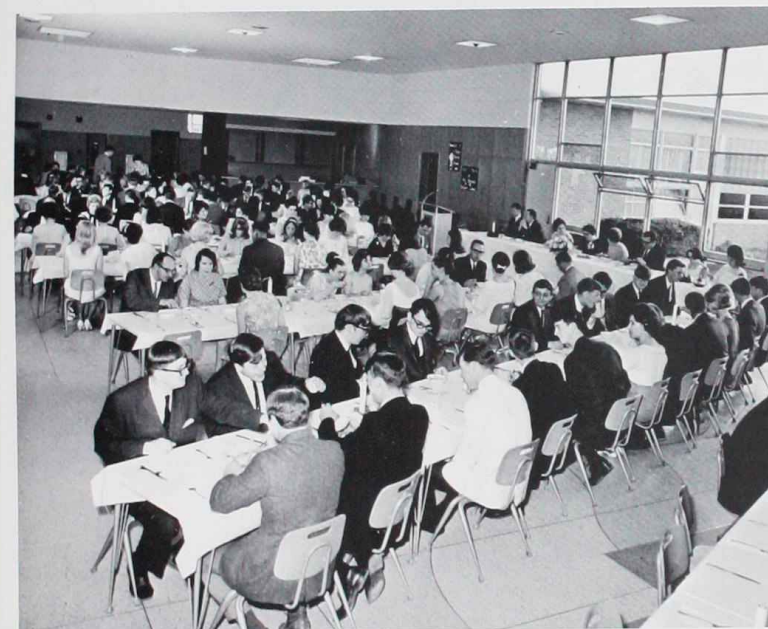

Mr. and Mrs. Sellers, Sharon Davis, who presented the Senior Prophecy, and LaNelle Bishop, who read the Senior Will for the Juniors.

Only Juniors and Seniors attend this annual Banquet.

The cafeteria cooks prepared the delicious meal and a group of freshmen and sophomores served.

The Banquet was held in our cafeteria. Thus there was plenty of room.

John Utley supplied the dinner music on his organ.

“The South In Bloom”

Lew Boyd and His Orchestra provided music for the X Prom this year.

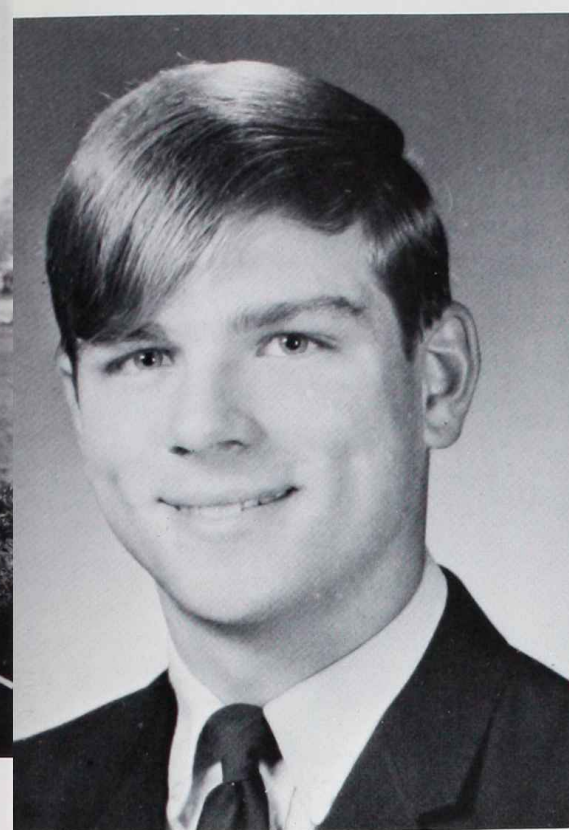

President Linda Hope, Vice President Ron Boland, Secretary Janice Kinney, and Treasurer Jim Simmonds.
