FLASHBACK...

Time flashes by with terrifying speed, Turning tomorrow into yesterday
as we live through now.

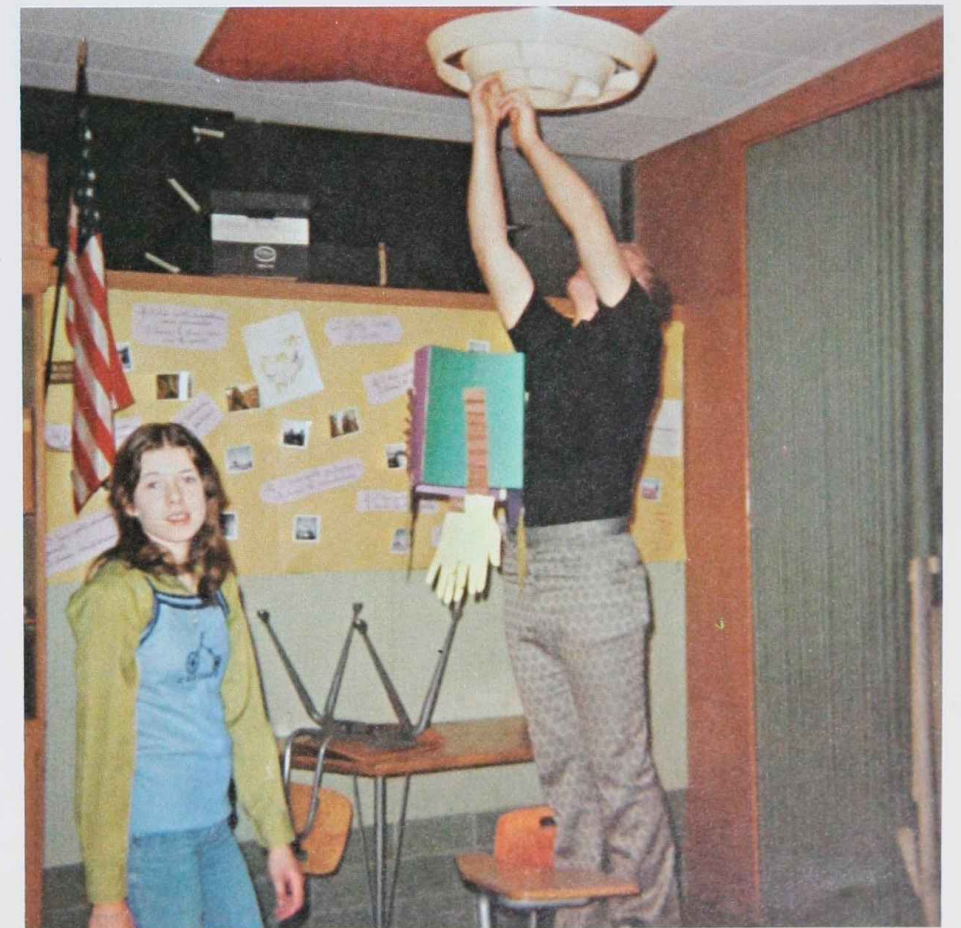

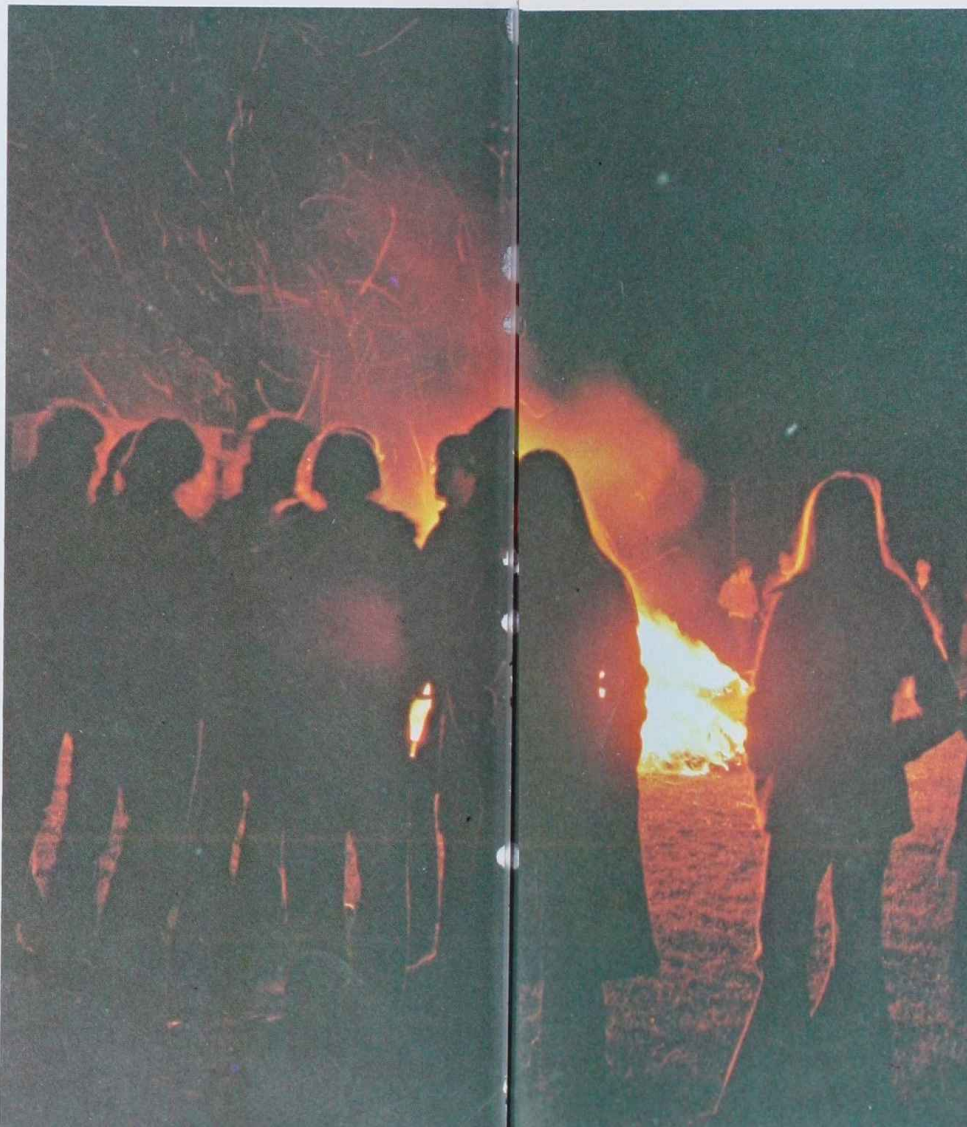

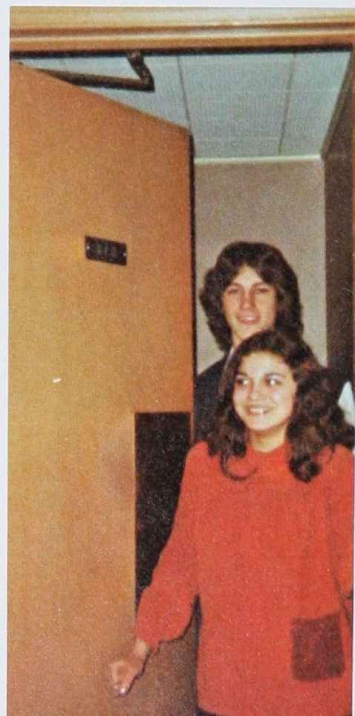

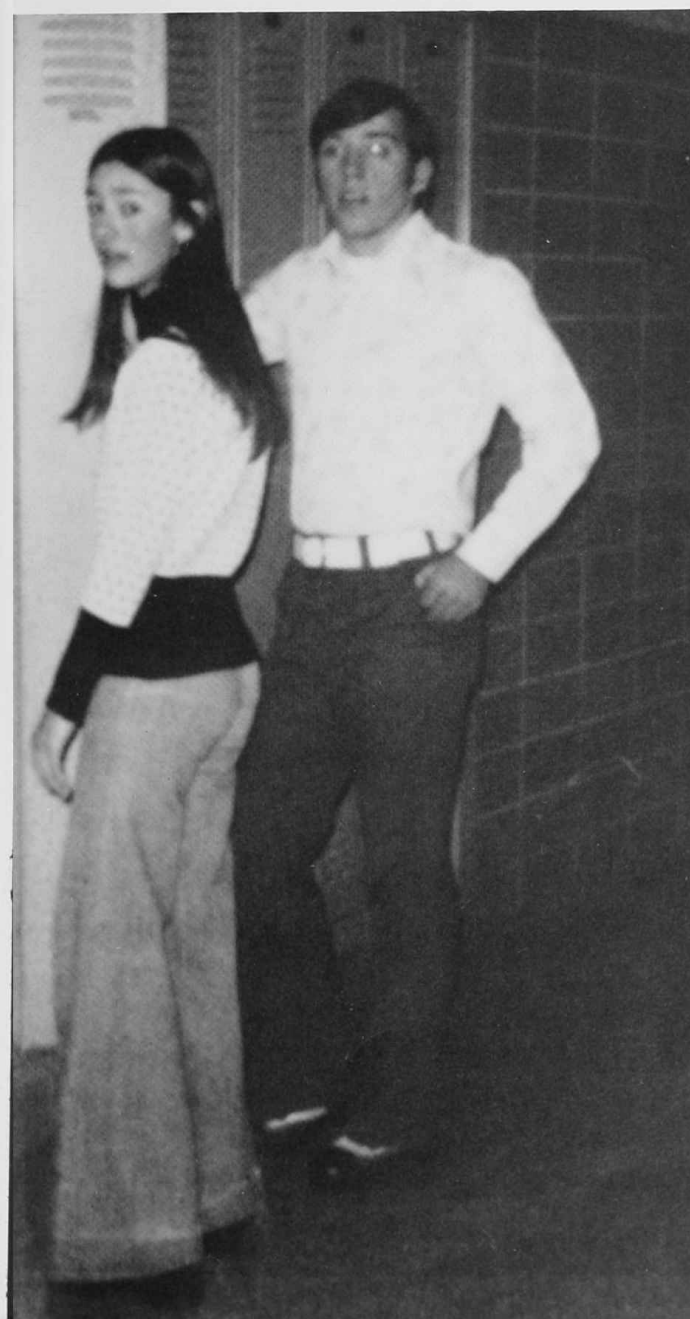

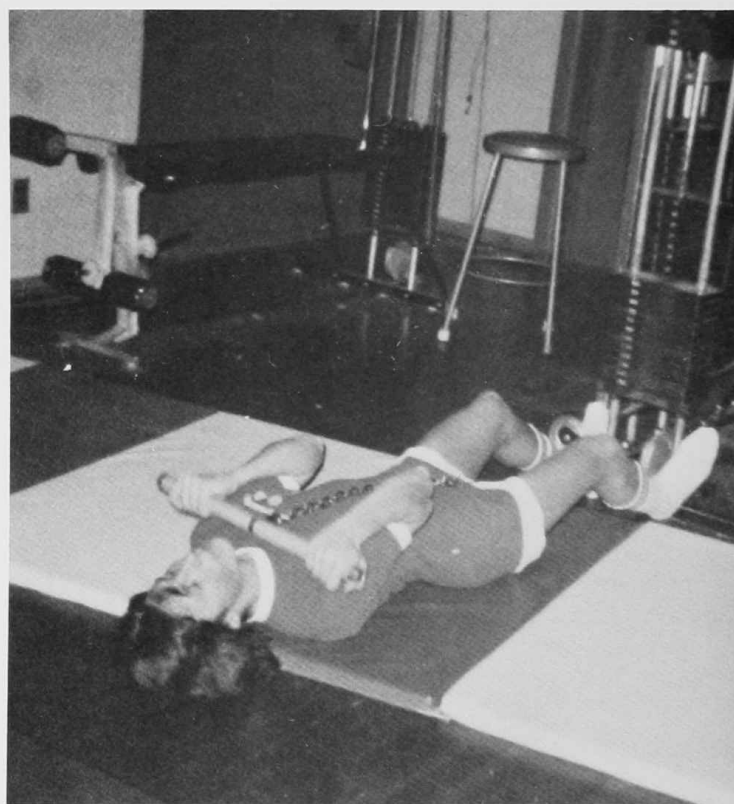

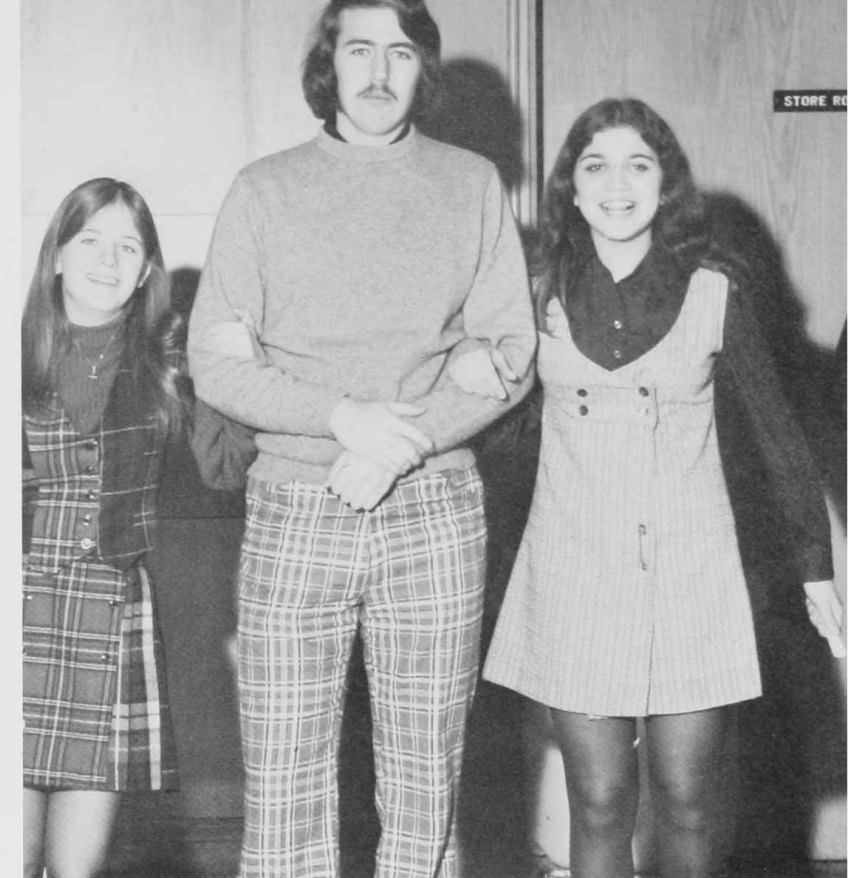

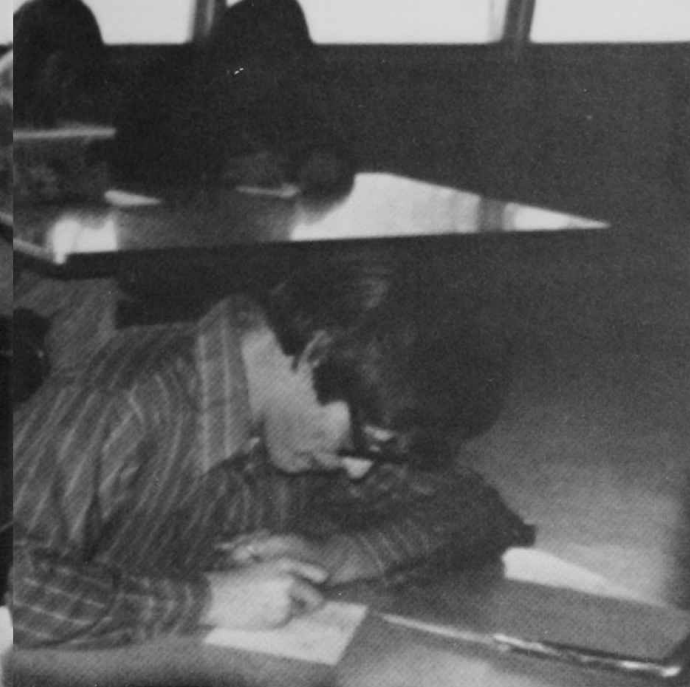

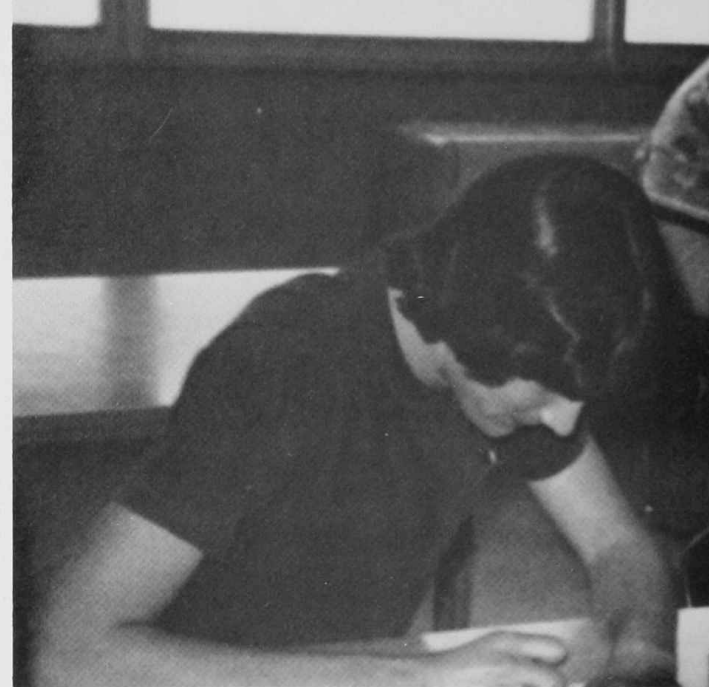

We must grasp
all the joy we can
before time passes by,
and we lose
the chance to live.

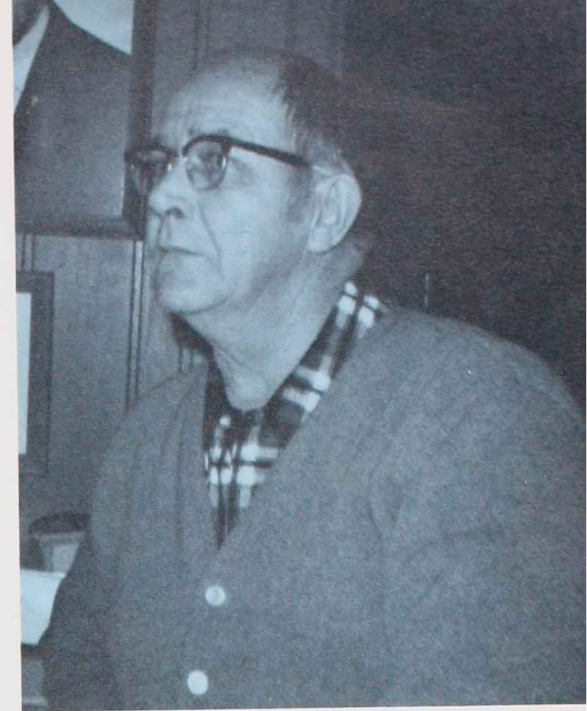

Each new experience fades into the past as we live each day, and yesterday is left behind as we grow towards tomorrow.

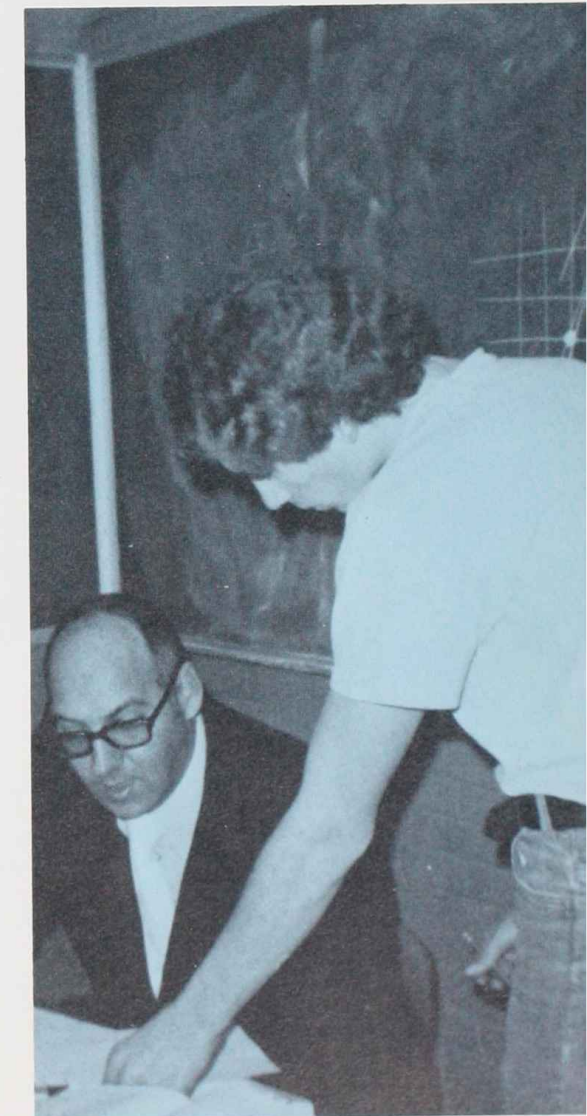

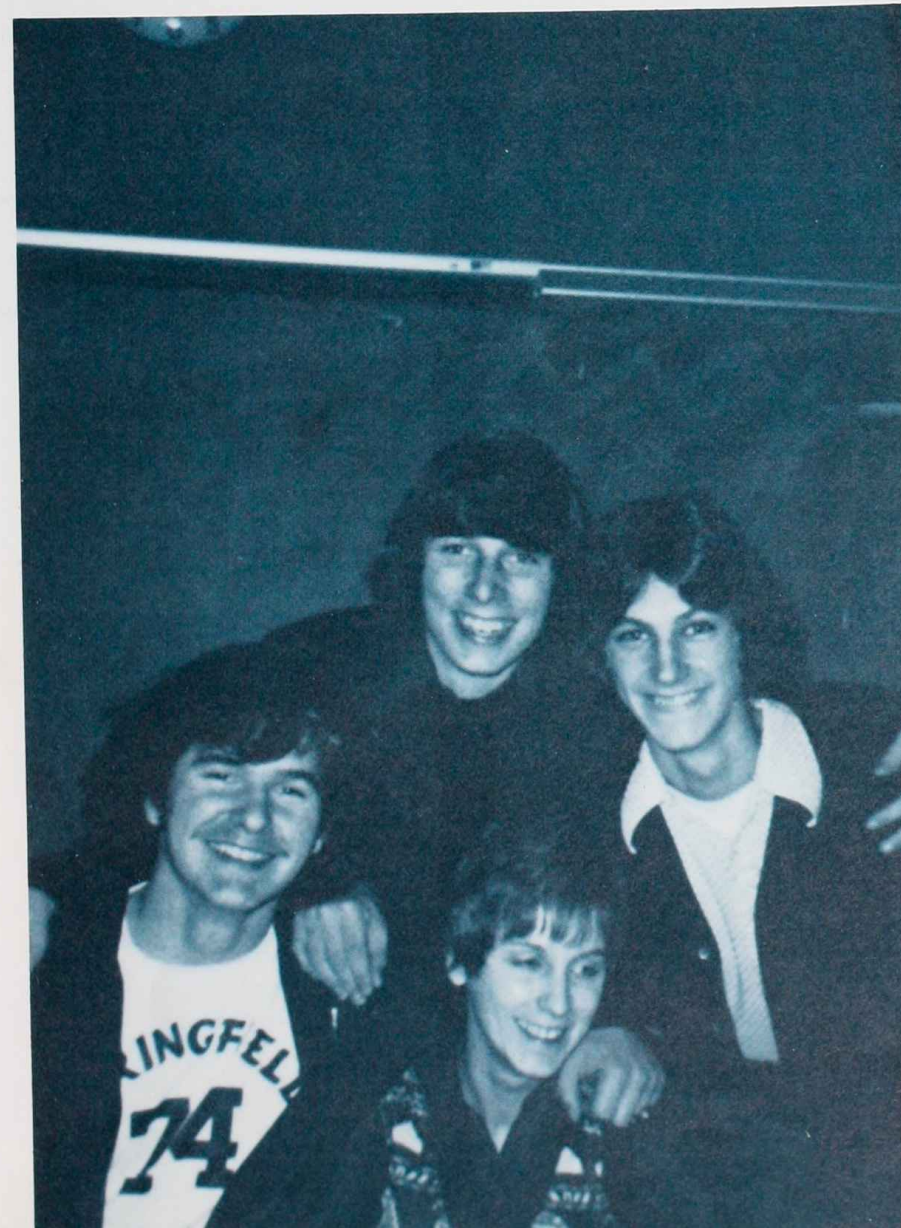

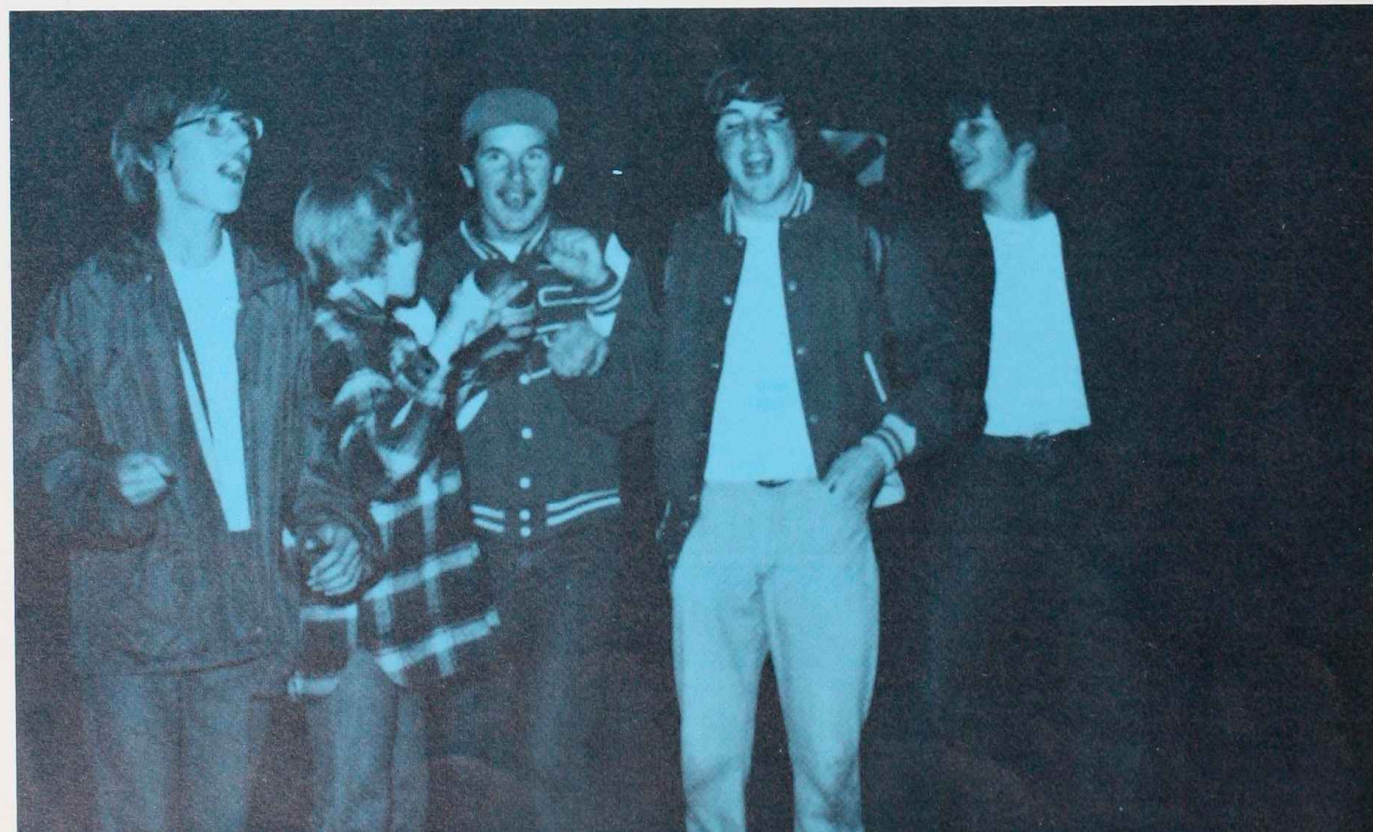

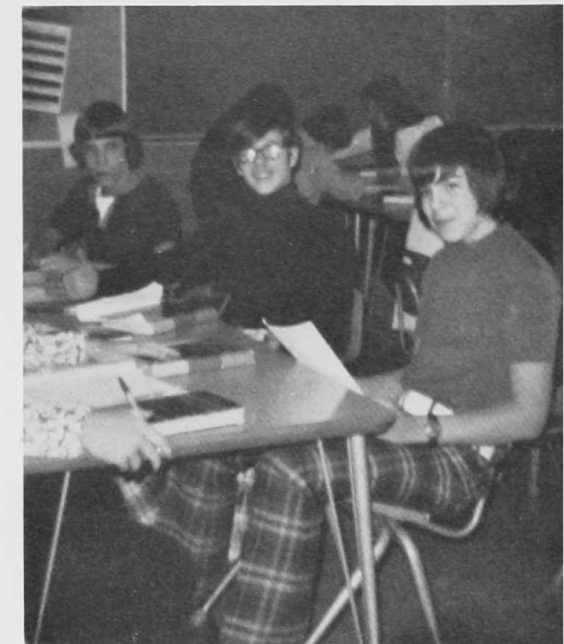

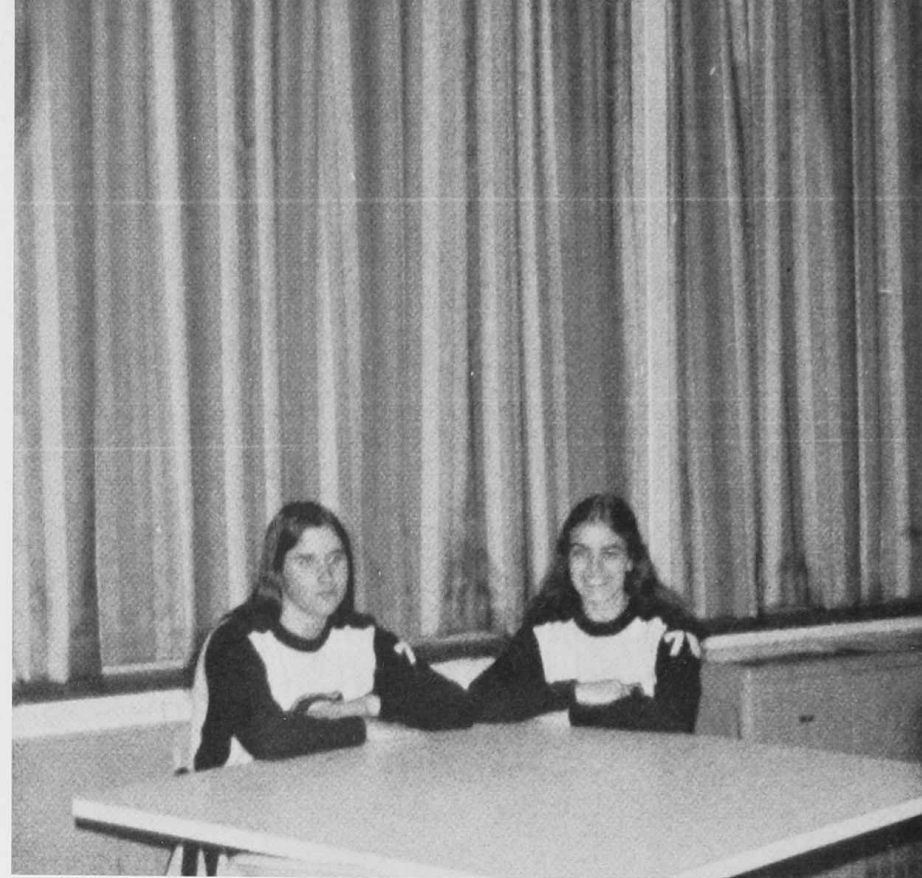

All that is left
of all the years
we have lived,
and all the time
we have spent,
is what is left
in our memories.

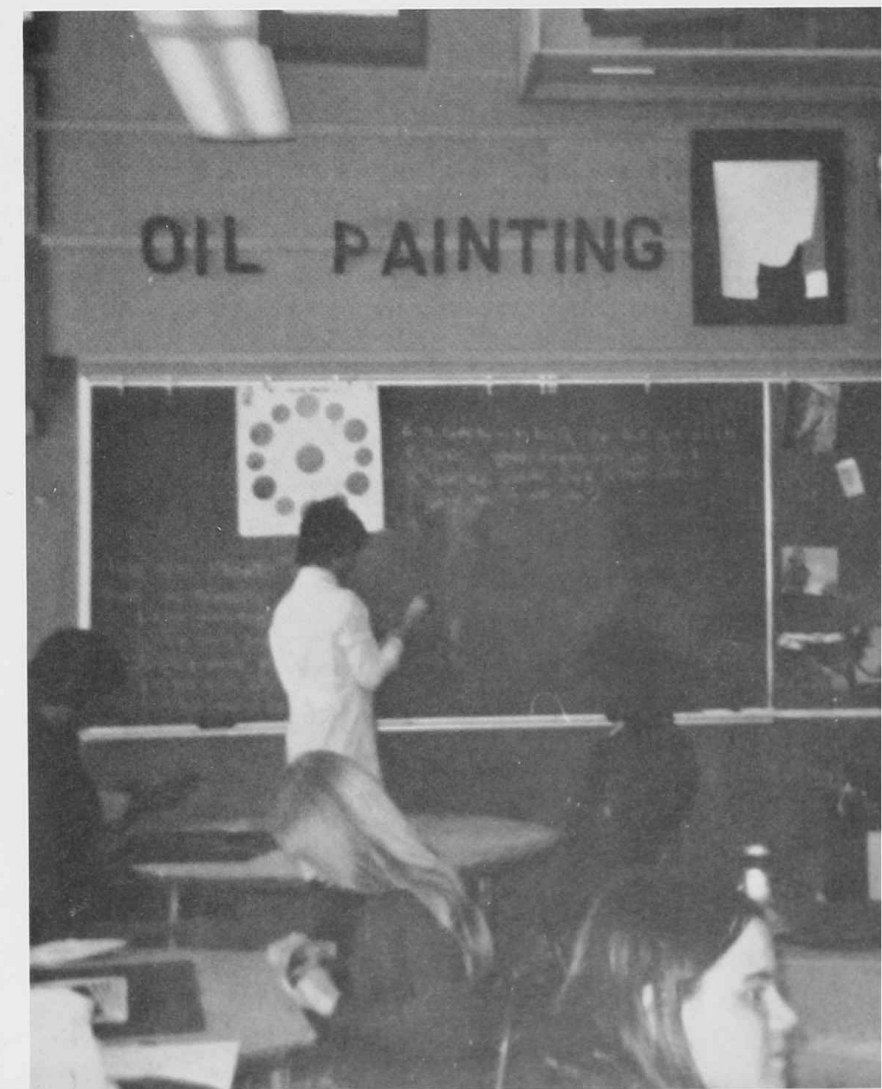

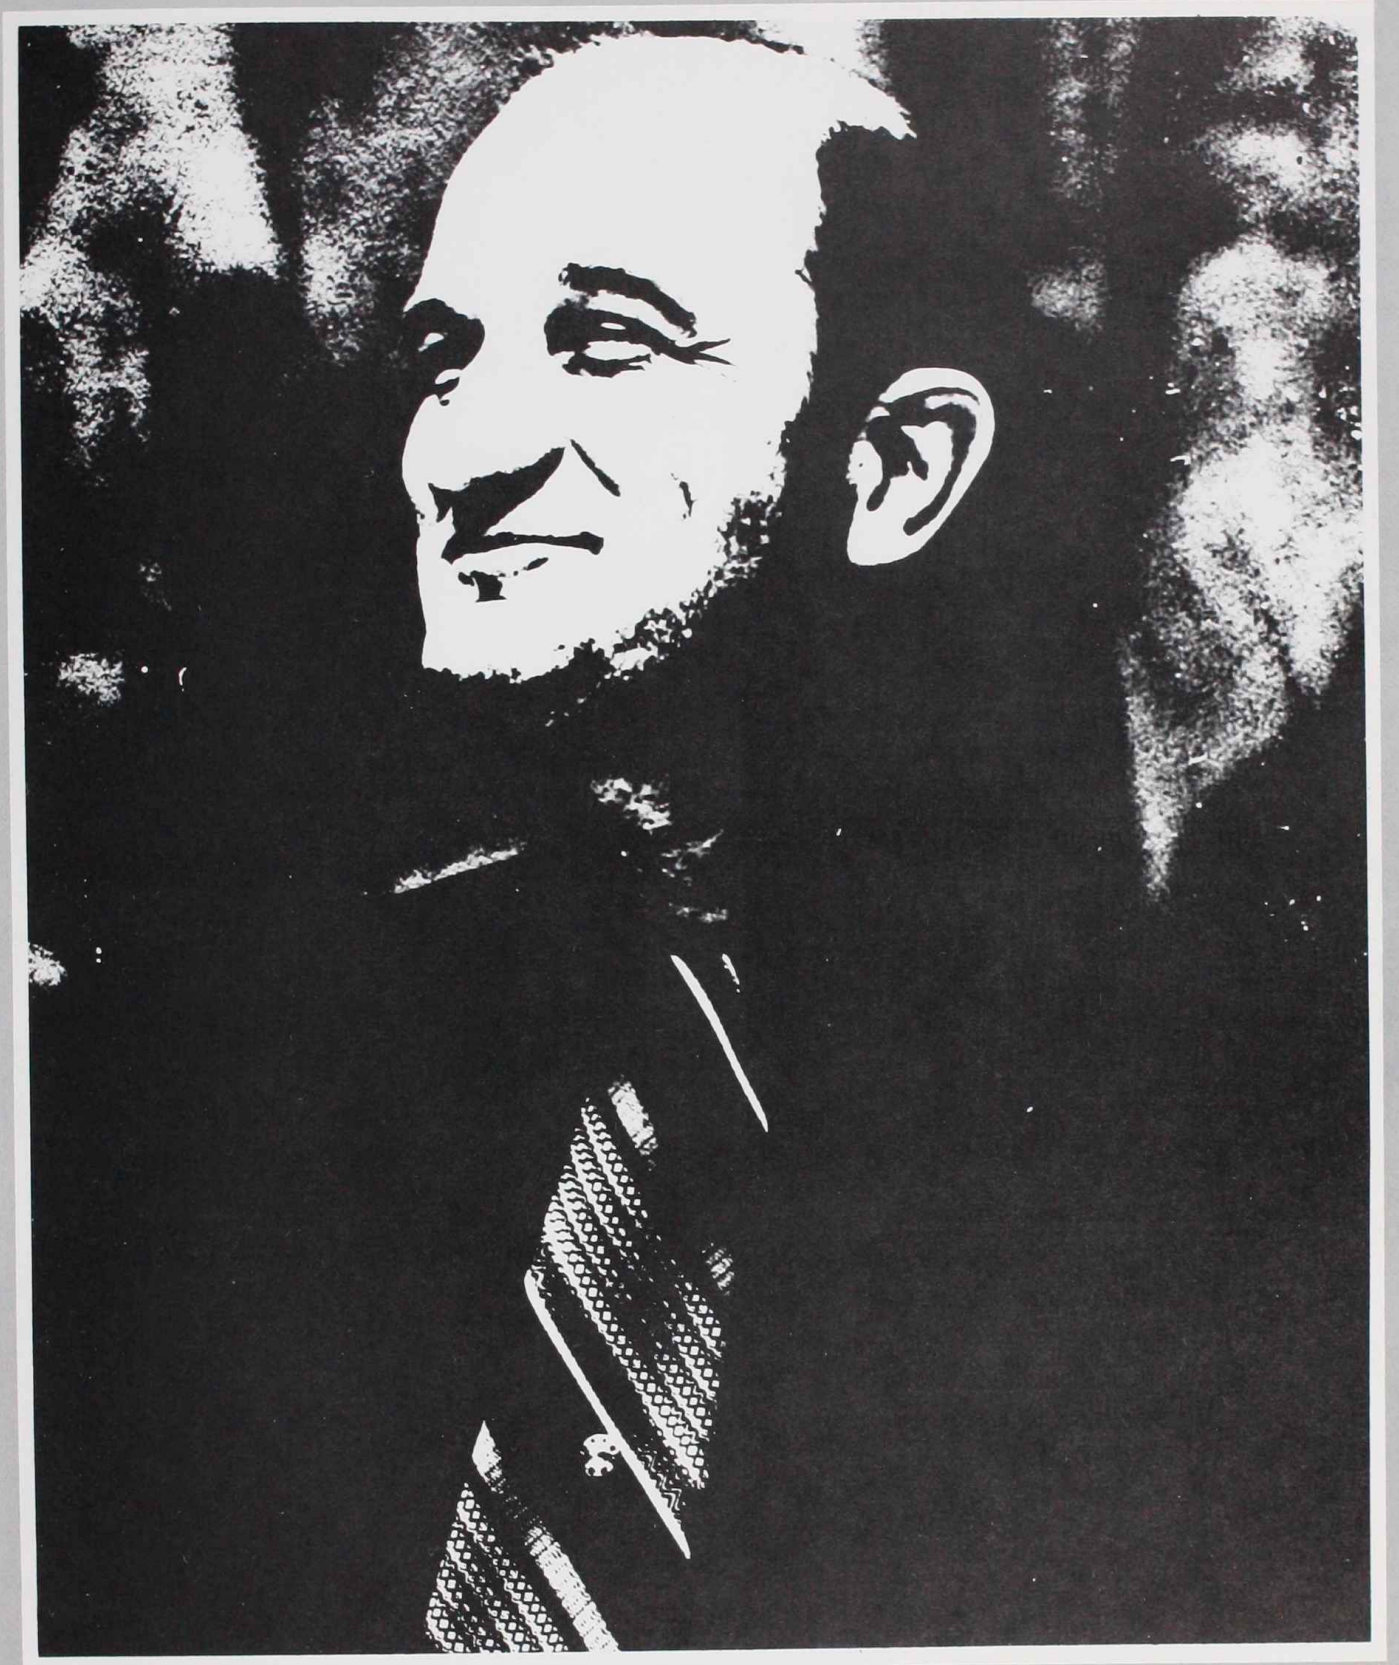

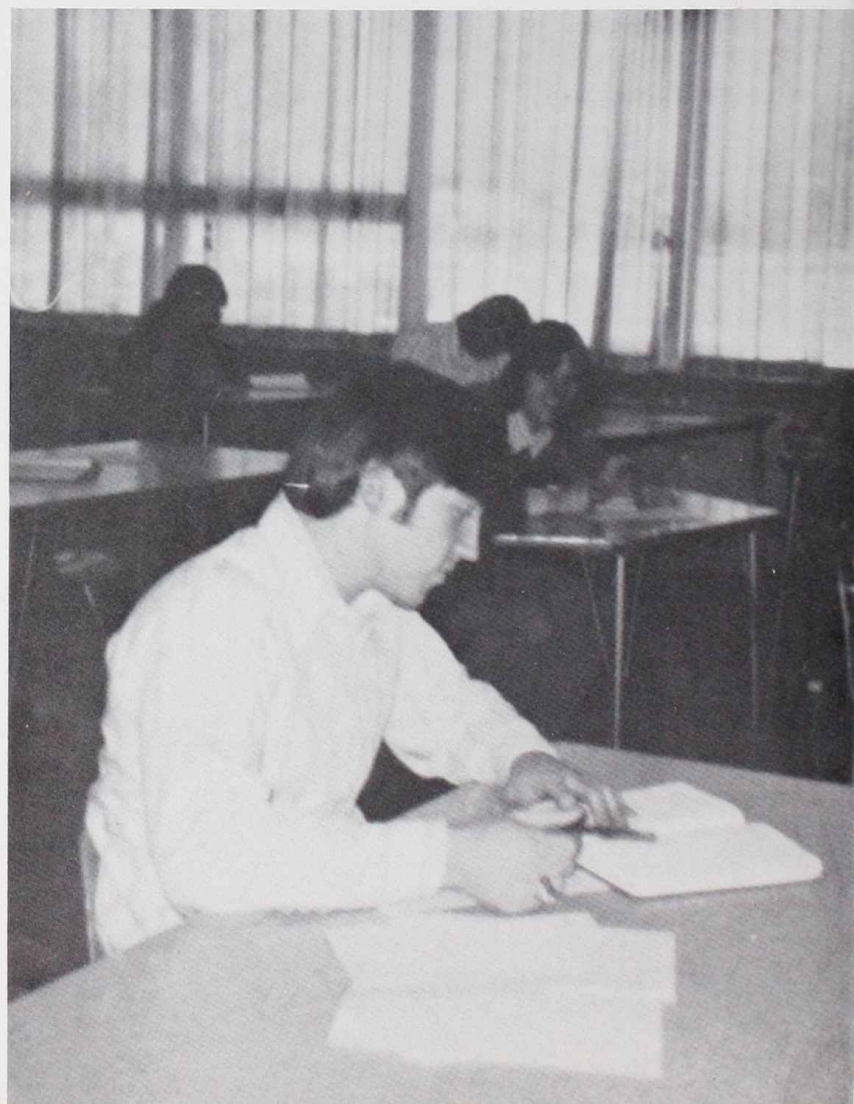

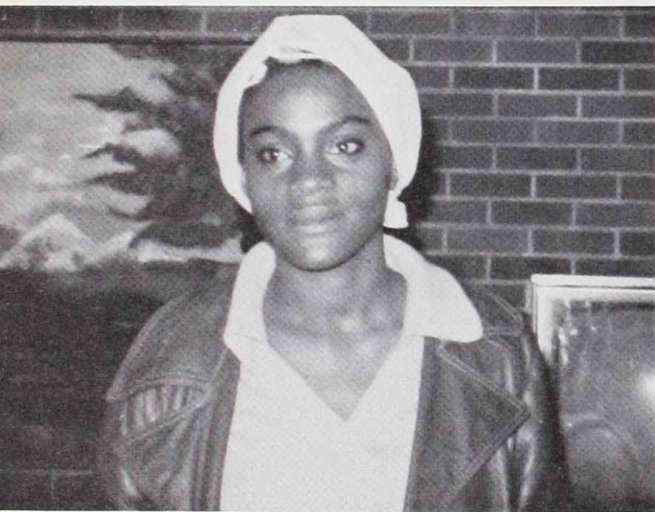

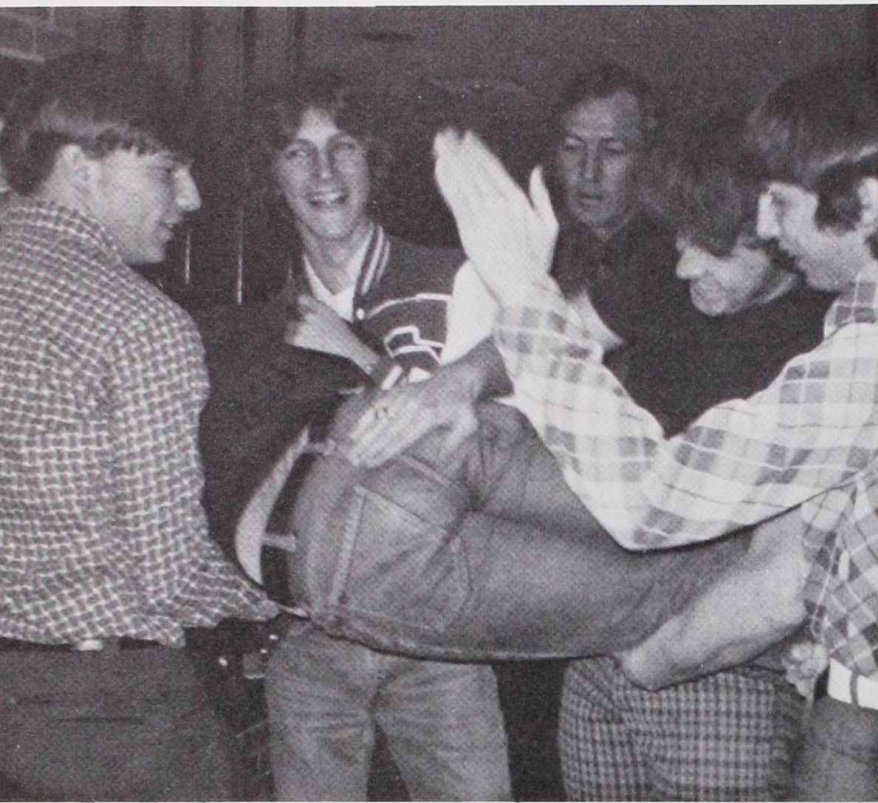

For no matter how much we have suffered,
We can look back now,
and feel
that after all life is good.
That it is the pain we endure
that makes health
so blessed.

It is loneliness
we suffer,
to make love
and companionship
so much sweeter.
And our sorrow
that gives depth
to our joy.

For within our mind,
we can erase
all bad
and savor
the goodness
of life . . .

"Quitters never win and winners never quit."

Business Department
Mrs. Nancy Pierce

"Education is the only thing they can't take away from you."

Home Economics Department
Mrs. Frances Miller

"Making a house a home is the greatest and most personal business in the world whether you are a man or a woman. Success in homemaking requires broad knowledge and skill in managing and doing things for those you love."

Business Department
Mr. Frank Isaacson

"Life isn't worth living without having a good time."

Social Studies Department
Mr. Karl Behnke

Science Department
Mr. Howard Mays

Spirit week, the week before homecoming, consisted of: Hobo Day, 50's day and Blue and White Day. On 50's Day, students dressed like their counterparts in the nostalgic days of the fifties. "Tie a Yellow Ribbon Round the Old Oak Tree" was the theme for the freshmen float. Sophomores used the theme "The Morning After."

1973 Homecoming left us with many fond memories. Homecoming Queen, Nancy Seawater, was crowned at the Springfield-Parchment game. The Junior Class won first prize for their float, "Somewhere over the Rainbow." Good friends and good music topped the evening off at the homecoming dance.

The annual National Honor Society Assembly was held honoring all students that showed high scholastic achievements, leadership, and service to their school and community. Senior members honored were: Mary Lyon, Shannon Everest, Nancy Seawater, Jeff Thomas, John Drikakis, Kevin Warner, Steve Britton, Lori Fitch, Sandy Swan, Debbie Hall, Glenda Peck, Cheryl Kinney, Melissa Olson, Mary Holmes.

Nancy Seawater and Kevin Warner received $100 Scholarships.

GRADUATION

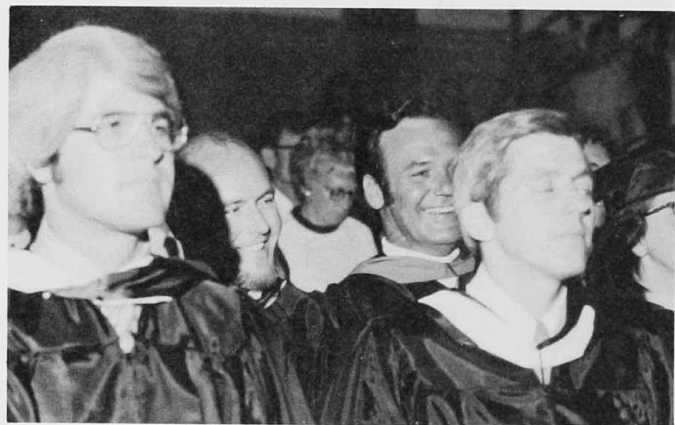

It's over now
 our high school days,
 filled with carnivals
 and baseball games.
 Of dances we'd all put pride in
 And football games our Rams would win.
 It's time now to spread our
 wings
 Go new places,
 see new things.
 It's time now to find our way
 To learn to live each brand new day.

If by chance,
 walking down the street,
 Our high school friends we should meet,
 The Flashback of our dear old school,
 Of regulations and the rules,
 of proms and matmen,
 Rams fighting hard,
 will in our hearts be touched
 and scarred.

Outside of these high school
doors
There's other life—Yes
there is more
And adding to this big
new world,
is the graduated class
of 1974.

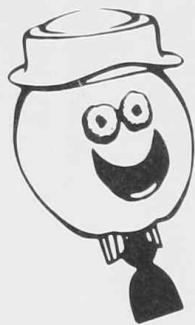

Colleen Brooks.
