The crowd was cheering, as Kim Andrews, last year's queen, crowned Tracy Southerland as the 1986 Homecoming Queen. The Rams easily defeated Bellvue 21-6. The game was exciting in spite of the rainy weather.

The Freshmen took first place in the "fairy tale" float contest, with "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." Second went to the Sophomores with "Jack and the Beanstalk", and third went to the Juniors with "The Three Little Pigs."

7

1. Cindy Richards takes a break from the dance floor as Connie McDonald and Andrew King continue dancing.
2. Tracy Southerland and John Zidarevich dance the night away.
3. Jerry Richards and Andrea Zielke move to the beat of the music played by D.J. Kevin Austin.
4. Karl Green and Liz McCaslin are lost in the moment during a slow dance.
5. Seniors outpull the juniors in the tug of war.
6. Tina Somers is trying to put toothpaste in Kevin Austin's mouth.
7. Seniors struggle while passing the orange during the HOMECOMING Day Festivities.

For this year's HOMECOMING SPIRIT WEEK Monday was Mickey Mouse and Sunglasses day, Tuesday—Crazy Hat Day, Wednesday—Clash and Bermuda Day, Friday also known as HOMECOMING DAY was the traditional Blue and White Day.

We had a good Spirit week this year. Almost everybody let their spirit come out either in their clothes or on their faces.

New Faces at S.H.S.

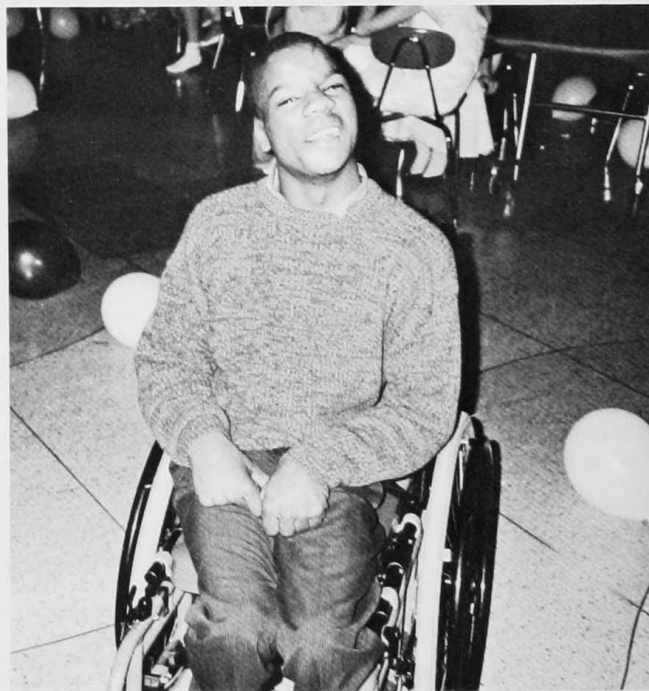

BACK ROW: Mike Guadagno, Mrs. Campbell, Greg Creller, Jerry Creller, Mrs. Hanner, Miss Bowers
MISSING: Jerry Langston and Dan Helmer

The year 1986/87 went down in history for many reasons. The new addition of the Po/Hi department to the Springfield family was one of them. During the summer of 1986, two rooms were renovated with the needed facilities; special bathroom, kitchen, and other necessary equipment.

Not only was the physical plan of the building changed, but also the staff membership was increased. The new staff Members are as follows: Miss D. Bowers—Po/Hi teacher

Mrs. J. Campbell—Aide
Mrs. C. Hanner—Attendant
Mrs. J. Tiedeman—O.T.
Mrs. D. Patient—P.T.
Mrs. M. DeRyder—P.T.
Mr. J.J. Simmons—Adapted P.E.
Mrs. N. Ellis—Speech
Mrs. K. Traster—Teacher Consultant V.I.

Many of the Po/Hi students come from different areas. The counties include; Calhoun, Barry, and Branch. It's a long drive, but they say it's worth the wait.

Carnival Proves to be a Success

The Winter Carnival cake surely satisfies the sweet tooth.

Winter Carnival, a tradition of Springfield High for many years past, was brought back in '87 with a roaring fresh start. Unfortunately, for the past five years the old tradition was forgotten, but the carnival was well worth the effort as it was organized once again. All of the classes profited from the carnival while youngsters enjoyed the challenging booths. The junior sponsored "Pot-the-balloon" game was the most popular booth, but the seniors gave them a run for their money in the "Pick-a-pop" booth.

The Make-Up Artists: Cindy Richards and Krista Hamilton.

HARVEY HOPS INTO SPRINGFIELD

Harvey was a play about an invisible rabbit which appeared only to Elwood P. Dowd. Elwood had a drinking problem, and many people thought he was going crazy. His sister tried to put him in a sanitarium. When she tried to do this, the doctor felt she was the one who should be in there. To make a long story short, the doctor also started seeing the rabbit. He wanted to keep it as a pet, but Harvey (the rabbit) decided that he wanted to stay with Elwood. In the end, Elwood's sister realized Elwood was not insane.

Juvie was an ensemble play. All the young people were being detained in the Juvenile Detention Center. It was intended to present the realities of crime and its punishment in the plainest possible terms, the entire night took place in the holding cells. Everyone was sleeping by two-thirds of the way through the play except those directly participating in the recollection.

The play was enjoyable and kept the audience's attention.

Bid Farewell

At 3p.m. on Sunday, May 31 the graduating seniors marched onto the athletic field to the sound of Pomp and Circumstance played by the Battle Creek Central High School Band.

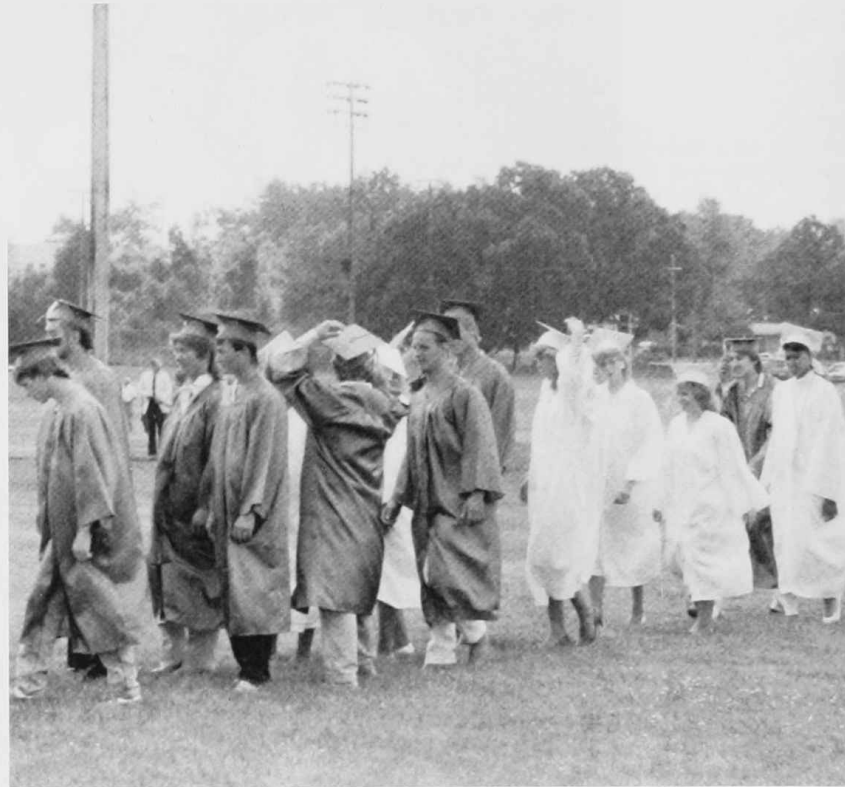

The temperature was extremely hot, and the sun shone on Todd Winningham as he began the ceremony by giving the invocation.

Mr. Kane welcomed parents, family, friends and introduced Tracy Southerland who gave the Salutatorian address.

Jim Berry represented the class of 1987 in his farewell speech. He was followed by Mrs. Gilbert whose Commencement Address spoke of the skills that the graduates have for leading successful lives.

Mr. Kane then presented the class to be graduated to Mr. W. James McQuiston, President of the Board of Education, and Dr. Sally A. Turner, Vice-President of the Board of Education, who presented the diplomas as Tracy Southerland, President of the senior class, called them forward.

Christina Jensen gave the Valedictorian address and Mindy Meyers gave the Benediction.

Seniors Achieve High Honors

Valedictorian Christina Jensen finished her high school career with a 3.825 G.P.A. After graduation, Christina will enroll at Grand Valley State College. At Grand Valley State she plans to pursue a degree in Business Administration.

In school Christina has been active in many clubs and activities: Student Council, National Honor Society, Youth of the Month of the Battle Creek Exchange Club, Quiz Bowl. She has attended the gifted and talented seminars, was selected Student of the Month at Springfield High School, served on the Baccalaureate, Christmas Basket, and Social Committees, and has been an active member of Project Lead.

Tracy Southerland achieved a 3.769 G.P.A. during high school to be elected Salutatorian. After graduation, Tracy will be attending Kellogg Community College. She plans to pursue a degree in Business Administration.

Tracy has achieved many honors such as follows: She is president of the Senior Class, and member of the National Honor Society, member of the Student Council, a cheerleader for four years, participated in softball and basketball, chaired the Commencement Committee, and was Homecoming Queen in 1986.

Successful Careers Demand More Than Just Basic Skills

Employers also consider communication, problem-solving, and reasoning skills most important to success in middle and top-level positions. That's why a Kellogg Community College curriculum includes enough general education courses to prepare you for career entry, promotion, and advancement.

Give yourself the best opportunity for success.
For a better you...choose Kellogg Community College.
