Seniors and Juniors roll in the new school year with spirit!

1. Kerry Smith, Jenny Simpson, and Stephanie Nusbaum seem to have forgotten what year this is.
2. "come on and go Hawaiian," says Dan McCullough.
3. Angie Fleming strikes an interesting pose for the camera.
4. Patty Isaacson and Marj Markham show us their morning attire.
5. Jenny Simpson and Dawn Walther look quite frightful on this Halloween day.
6. Billy May, Kimber Stockman, Jamie Fleming, and Tracey Robbins show visitor Carol Johnson how they clown around in the library.
7. Rory Ramon and Kimber Stockman get into the spirit of things on Blue and White day.
8. Ginny Hilborn and Tom Moore show us their bermudas.
9. Brian Woodard prepares himself for another exciting day of Mr. Christensen.

Spirit week at Springfield High was quite an incredible turnout as we had many students participating in all the various events we had to choose from. We had the POHI students come down and we wrapped them in toilet paper and then there was all the court events that take place every year. Then there was the homecoming game where we crowned our 1987 queen, Kerry Smith.

1. Ginny Hilborn stops to pose for a quick candid while talking on the phone in her football uniform.
2. Freshmen on their first try take first place on their float.
3. Tracey Robbins, Cindy Pulsipher, and Brian Woodard stand around arguing about who gets to wear the blind fold.
4. Eric Andrews, Rory Ramon and John Genoe stand around with the rest of the crowd to show off their school spirit for the homecoming game by decorating their faces with blue and white paint.
5. Kerry Smith and Scott Edmonds walk off the field after the crowning of the 1987 queen was completed. Kerry Smith was the lucky gal.

Girls powder puff, devastating game.

Row one: Cecilia Hicks, Dawn Walther, Karl Green, Marg Markham, Kathy Crookes. Row two: Laura Christensen, Tina Howard, Angie Fleming, Jennie Simpson, Janise Woodard, Kristen Kane, E.J. Greig. Girls powder puff turned out to be an exciting game. The score was 8-0, seniors' victory. It was a clean game and more spectators showed up than we had expected. It brought excitement to the week. The tug-a-war played at half time was won by the class of 1989.

The 1987-88 girls tennis team was definitely a competitive team. The girls ended the season with a 3-7 record. All four loses were only by a few points. Heading this year's team were Kristen Kane and Stephanie Nusbaum as co-captains. Most valuable was Wendy Behrndt and most improved was Veronika Nagy. This years coaches award went to Kathy Crookes. Springfield placed second at both the Lakewood Invitational and the SMINT tournament.

Students build pride at SHS

Each month Springfield High School's Student Council chooses four students, one from each class, that best suits the position of an ideal student. Students should obtain a 3.00 GPA and participate in a sport or academic club. Springfield is very proud of this year's chosen students.

Stephanie, Karl wear crowns

Springfield High School's Winter Ball King and Queen were Karl Green and Stephanie Nusbaum.

Spirit week was a smash with everyone dressed up. The basketball team lost their game against Bronson, but everyone still celebrated at the Winter Ball Dance with the band Fugitive. At the pep assembly the seniors and the juniors dominated the sophomores and the freshmen.

Springfield Jams at Winter Wonderland

Winterball week at SHS started with spirit week. The two favorites were Blue and White Day and Pajama Day. That Friday there was pep assembly. Some of the events were pie eating, balloon race, and tug of war. The sophomores won the pie eating and the seniors won the tug of war. Unfortunately SHS lost to Bronson that night. During half time, Stephanie Nusbaum and Karl Green were crowned Queen and King. To end the week SHS held the Winer Wonderland Dance. The D.J. was Fugitive. There was a good turnout.

1. Eric Andrews and Jennifer Speckman dance to the last slow song.

2. Greg Weever and Debbie Cornwell, Billy Sween and Rhonda Fortner, Chris Cooley and Jamie Fleming, Mike Morey and Ginny Hilborn, Jason Park and Angie McMillon all make plans for the rest of the night.

3. SHS students Kathy Crookes, Kristen Kane, Patti Isaacson, and Agnes Mangosing chat with exchange students from KCC.

4. Karl Green and Stephanie Nusbaum show their enthusiasm after being crowned the night before. 5. Tracey Robbins and Terry Milam stare off as if they are in a dream world.

6. Terri Sackett and Chuck True rest after a long dance.

7. Ralph Watkins, Stephanie Gray, Kerry Smith, Michelle Gordon, Krishna Martin, E.J. Greig, Jennifer Knapp, Regina Blackwell, and Terri Garrett show what good friends they are.

The wrestlers of Springfield had a fair year. Coach Don Hudson created a very fine team this year. Though there were only nine wrestlers on the team, they produced a very good record for the season. Captains of the team were Paul Bowers who wrestled during his Junior and Senior year with a career record of 34 wins, 34 losses, and 17 pins. The second captain was Tim Ruger, he wrestled during his Junior and Senior year with a career record of 21 wins, 29 losses, 9 pins.

This year Doug Sage and Brian Woodard received the title for most valuable. John Genoe received the title for the most improved. Charlie Philp received the coach's award. Springfield developed a great team this year despite the challenges they faced. Keep it up Springfield.

Cheerleaders Burst Into Action

The football cheerleaders cheered exceptionally well throughout the football season. The six member senior team attended the U.S.C.A. Cheerleading camp at Western Michigan University in the past summer.

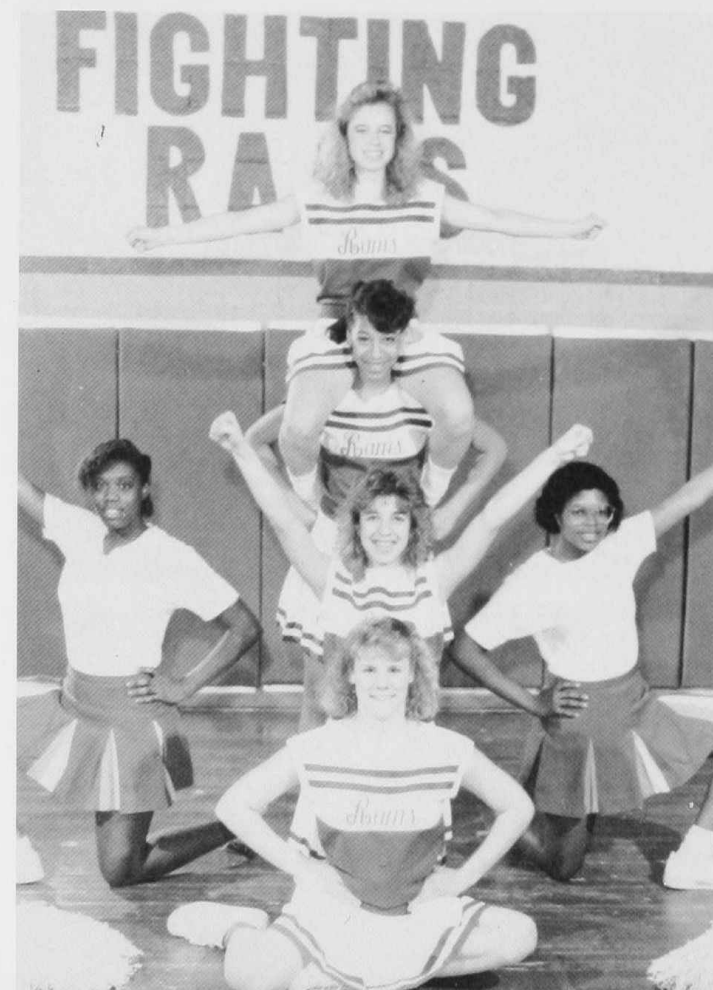

The Varsity cheerleaders did a spectacular job in showing their terrific spirit while they did their routine to "Push It" during the Winter Carnival pep rally.

The Junior Varsity cheerleaders cheered the team onto their victories with their outstanding performances.

S.A.D.D. Organizes Against Drinking

1.

Angie Fleming, Lori Mack, Jim Isaacson, Trevor Fenlon, Missy Hall, and Jennifer Speckman went with Mr. Noto and his wife to a S.A.D.D. conference at Mackinac Island in October to learn how to start our own S.A.D.D. chapter.

After much organization, on February eighth Mr. Rotta, state S.A.D.D. director, was a guest speaker at an all school assembly. After this "Contracts For Life" were available to students to take home and sign with their friends or parents. These contracts stated that a teenager agrees to call his or her parents at anytime, and the parent will find a safe ride home for them.

S.A.D.D. has had a very important part in reducing the number of students involved in alcohol related accidents, and we know this will be a very valuable program for our school and community.

Model U.N. focuses on West Germany, Norway, and Somalia

Model U.N. is an opportunity for young people in Indiana and Michigan to get together and represent countries in the U.N. This year they went to Hope College for their convention. There, they represented the countries of West Germany, Norway, and Somalia. The topics were terrorism, hunger, poverty, and war. They decided laws they could pass not only for the countries they represented, but all the countries in the U.N.

Springfield rates at Expo '88

Expo '88, a science, art, and writing exposition was a chance for young people in the area to share their creative talents with others their age. This year it was held at the Kellogg Center. Springfield had two students who rated at the top. Jim Randall received honorable mention in the sculpturing category. Kenny Johnson received third place in the painting category.

SPRINGFIELD ATTENDS LEADERSHIP FORUM

Again this year Albion College held the Student Leadership Forum. Some of the schools that attended besides Springfield were Albion, Battle Creek, St. Philip, Bellevue, Bronson, Homer, Lakeview, Athens, Coldwater, Harper Creek, Marshall, Olivet, Quincy, Tekonsha and Union City. The Student Leadership Forum was created to let students think positively of themselves as leaders. While at the Forum, students heard keynote speakers such as Vernon Payne, head coach at Western Michigan University; Dr. Roger LaBonte, Calhoun ISD Superintendent; and Ms. Tricia Moore, an Educational Consultant at the Department of Michigan Education. They also attended workshops where the students shared their concerns about being a leader at their schools.

JOURNALISM GOES FOR A GOOD YEAR

Journalism raised money for a yearbook this year by selling carnations during Winter Ball and at Homecoming. The Journalism class also sold candy at various times in the year. This year, Journalism made the newspaper with the use of the computers and the copy machine in the office. The Journalism staff also came up with an appropriate title, "A Year In The Life". After coming up with the title, the Journalism staff spent all of their time taking photographs, drawing lay-outs, and writing body copy for the yearbook.

Prom Night Parades "Feelings Are Forever"

"Feelings Are Forever" was the theme for the Junior-Senior prom. Silver stars, colored balloons, and white cotton clouds filled the gym as students and friends danced the night away. Steve Babic was the D.J. The Juniors only had a week to get everything together because of the late arrival of the prom decorations. But in spite of all the rushing, the prom turned out to be a success.

1. Marj Markham and Sean Breslin boogie the night away.
2. Patti Isaacson, Kristen Kane, and Janise Woodard are reminiscing about past dances while enjoying the music.
3. Tammy Green, Theresa Hewlett, Charlotte Bundy, Kim Shields, David Peevers, Louis Philp, and friends share one of the last moments of the school year.
4. Steve Lawrence, Dawn Walther, Dan McCulloch, and Amy Mellon take time out to pose for the camera.

4. Jim Isaacson laughs as Kathy Hart tries to teach him how to dance.
5. Carol Hilborn, Scott Edmonds, and Kerry Smith show they're having a good time by smiles.
6. Jamie Fleming, Chris Cooley, Debbie Cornwell, and Rory Ramon discuss their plans for later that night while dancing.
7. Todd Baird and girlfriend, Mindy Meyers, gaze into each others eyes.
8. Rhonda Fortner and Kim Stockman get into the groove of the music.

Community Applauds Graduates

At 3 p.m. on Sunday, June 5 the graduating class of 1988 marched onto the athletic field to the sound of Pomp and Circumstance played by the Battle Creek Central High School Band.

The day was pleasant and the sun shone as Kerry Smith began the ceremony by reading the invocation.

Principal Douglas Kane welcomed parents, family, and friends and introduced Laura Christensen to give the Salutatorian Address.

Mr. Kane then introduced Jennifer Simpson, representing the senior class, to give a Commencement Address.

Superintendent R. Bruce Sellers called Mr. Donald Pape forward to give his speech.

Mr. Kane then presented the class to be graduated. Dr. Sally Turner, vice president of the board of education, Mr. Robert Gifford, secretary of the board of education, and Mr. Ronald Berridge, trustee of the board of education, presented the students with their certificates as Angela Fleming called them forward.

Kristen Kane gave the Valedictorian Address wishing her class luck and saying good-bye. After the benediction, given by Jason Wright, the graduated seniors walked out into the world. Congratulations!
